

1) Client requests access

2) Authorizer function checks access rights and generates token

2) Client requests resource using token

